Sri Datta Sai Temple and Cultural Center is delighted to invite all devotees and volunteers to participate in Karthika Masam Vanabhojanalu.

Vana means forest/garden; Bhojan means food. As per Hindu rituals, In Karthika Masam, one is supposed to eat food under Amla tree which is believed as Lord Vishnu. So people cook Satvik food and eat it under Amla tree.

SDST invites all devotees to participate in vanabhojanalu on Nov 12th from 12:00 PM - 4:00 PM in Central Park.

Schedule:

Siva Linga Abhishekam @ 12 PM

Deepa Danam offered to Priest @1 PM

Vana Bhojanam from 1 PM onwards

Note: SDST will be serving bhojanam during the event. Devotees are encouraged to bring Satvik(No Onion, No Garlic) bhojan
